Fish Out of Agua: My Life on Neither Side of the (Subway) Tracks

By Michele Carlo

Citadel Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 272 pages. Dimensions: 8.2in. x 5.5in. x 1.0in. A voice from the loudspeaker blared, Will the family who brought the little redheaded white girl to the Puerto Rican Day parade please come to the bandstand to pick her up I looked around. Wait a minute. I am at the bandstand. I am that lost girl! Michele Carlo, a redheaded, freckle-faced Puerto Rican raised in the Polish section of the Bronx, grew up as a permanent outsider. Too white for her proud, Spanish-speaking relatives and a mystery to her schoolmates, Michele braved a search for identity that was a long, rough and tumble ride . . . By turns heartbreaking and humorous, she recalls the family calamities, fumbblings of first love, and all the people and events that shaped her. From her playground battlefield in the not-so- wholesome summer of 69 to many adrenaline-fueled, graffiti-filled afternoons and her emergence as an artist with a unique and alluring voice, Micheles story is an homage to a New York City gone by . . . and an iconically American, unforgettable portrait of growing up. Warm and insightful . . . Micheles take on life as a Latina is...
