G2 Rights. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 75 pages. In each of these compelling stories, visitors to a strange, dilapidated building called The Library and Tea Room find themselves ushered into a chair in a reading room by a mysterious old man, who hands them a book from the shelves. Before they can open the book, all the visitors find themselves asleep and experiencing dream visions that grant them greater insight into their own lives and their relationship with God and Creation, at a time when all of them are in need of guidance. Clive Loaders imaginative tales and clear, uncluttered writing make The Sonoran Writings thought-provoking reading. Clive Loader was born in eastern Burma in 1933. His great-grandfather had come to India as a soldier with the British Army in the 1800s. His father, born in Burma, served as a District Officer among the tribes of the Shan States. The family escaped from Burma to India during World War II, before returning to England. However, the variety of spiritual influences to which the family had been exposed left their mark. Raised initially in the Church of England, his Burmese-Buddhist grandmother, his parents conversion to the Spiritual Church and his marriage to a strong catholic gave him a diversity of religious viewpoints on which to ponder. Now retired from military service, he and his wife live in Western Canada. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
