FLIGHT AND FLYING VOLUME 1

Bluewaterpress LLC, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Alex Burton has an engaging style of writing that is educational, yet you forget that you re learning as it is so enjoyable to read. His personal experiences and passion for aviation are seamlessly interwoven with academic knowledge throughout the essays. Alex has gifted the industry with his Flight and Flying collections, which are an excellent read for professionals and students alike. Dr. Suzanne Kearns Assistant Professor, Commercial Aviation Management DAN Management and Organizational Studies Western University Alex Burton is the kind of instructor who we all want to teach us how to fly. His monthly column From the Training Seat published in the Canadian Owners and Pilots Association s newspaper, COPA Flight, reveals how passionate and knowledgeable he is as a flight instructor and pilot examiner. This collection of articles written by Alex should help keep you ahead of your aircraft. Michel Hell Publisher/Editor Canadian Owners and Pilots Association Alex is a truly professional Flight Instructor and performed admirably as the Chief Flight Instructor of a University flight School. Well organized, he displayed strong leadership qualities in leading his staff and obtaining solid performance in his students Flight Test results. On a personal level, Alex is a friendly individual who is intensely interested in flight instruction and who inspires others, instructors and students alike, to excel. Alex is also an exact, very competent pilot who sets high standards for his students to emulate. Lt. Col. Doug Gillanders RCAF ret. (CF-104 Pilot) I have known and worked with Alex for over 15 years in my previous role as an Inspector with Transport Canada and later while conducting Flight Instructor Refresher Courses. As a professional aviation educator,...
