Not illustrated. 1892 Excerpt: .Plant s enterprise has showered upon Florida and its people! The evidence of his genius and energy are seen almost everywhere, and a grateful people gladly accord to him the tribute of their praise. Without the railroad development of recent years, Florida would be far backward. In Florida railroads, steamboat lines, hotels, and other improvements, Mr. Plant has beep conspicuous. The phosphate industry of Florida, which for a while enjoyed a marvelous boom, seems to be taking a rest just now, as many of the mines have shut down either temporarily or permanently. The territory of the phosphate field is very extensive, and it is probable that the large and what might be termed unlimited supply has affected the market, as the price of phosphate has materially depreciated. 6till, even at prevailing figures, there is said to be money in the business. STAR OF MY LOVE.;Written for the Gazette by Will Waters. Oh, yes, I have loved you since long, long ago, When first your pure smile beamed on me--Since first your sweet face came to me like the sun That chases the mist from the sea. Since that long-ago summer I gazed in your eyes--Eyes blue as the sky or the sea--And told the old story of love, ever young, My thoughts have been ever with thee. CHORUS. Then let me remember, when wild storms assail, Let me remember, though wild is the gale, That silver star trembles in the clouds up above--The star that...
